STEPS TO APPLY FOR APPFA ACCREDITATION

These steps apply for both initial and reaccrediting applicants.

PRE-APPLICATION

- Download and review the current APPFA Application Manual. Review the current APPFA Accreditation Criteria.
- Perform a program gap analysis. (Note: This resource is provided as a self-directed aid. You will not submit a completed gap analysis to the ANCC PTAP & APPFA Team.)

BECOMING AN APPLICANT

- Contact the ANCC PTAP & APPFA Team if you are unsure of the appropriate review cycle for your program.
- Submit a completed APPFA Application Form to confirm your program's eligibility according to the cycle application deadline.
- Access the APPFA Applicant Resource Center and review its webinars and tutorials. Download and begin using the required document templates. (Note: This resource center is provided only to official APPFA applicants.)

SELF-STUDY & DOCUMENT PREPARATION

- After program eligibility is confirmed, the ANCC PTAP & APPFA Team will schedule a brief welcome webinar to review the Applicant Resource Center and program eligibility letter in detail.
- Submit your program self-study package by the assigned due date.
- Gather program data, organizational charts, and documentation required for your application.
- Submission of APPFA self-study, APPFA site and specialty crosswalk (if applicable), and APPFA accreditation with distinction (AWD) self-study (if applicable).

DOCUMENT REVIEW & SURVEY

- The learners identified in the survey will complete the APPFA Learner Survey (51% response rate is required for the appraisal process to move forward).
- Appraisers complete a qualitative review of the self-study.
- Written additional documentation may be requested from appraisers, if needed.

VIRTUAL VISIT

- Complete a Virtual Visit with the appraiser team to amplify, clarify, and verify findings in the self-study and additional documentation.
- Appraisers prepare a final report for the Commission on Accreditation of Practice Transition Programs (COA-PTP) based on the self-study, additional documentation, and Virtual Visit.

ACCREDITATION DECISION

- COA-PTP reviews the appraiser team's final report and aggregate data from the Learner Survey.
- If submitted and review eligibility is met, COA-PTP reviews AWD self-study and votes on an accreditation decision.
- Program accreditation may be granted for up to four years.

ABOUT THE APPFA SELF-STUDY(IES)

SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION

- Supporting documentation provides a context for understanding the APPFA Program (“the program”) and the organization or specialty(ies) where the program is operationalized.
- The applicant must submit self-study (ies) following the PDF bookmarking guidelines in Chapter 3 of the APPFA Application Manual.

NARRATIVES

- Applicants will write a separate narrative to address each program criterion. A narrative is a description and demonstration (example) of how the APPFA requirements are present and operationalized within the program.
- Only one narrative description is allowed per criterion. A minimum of one paragraph per narrative component (description and demonstration) is required.

TEMPLATES

The ANCC PTAP & APPFA Team has developed templates to help applicants complete the requirements for self-study. All templates can be found in the Applicant Resource Center. Access to the center is granted after eligibility is confirmed.

Program Self-Study Template

REQUIRED FOR DOCUMENT SUBMISSION

Aggregated Quality Outcomes Table Template

OPTIONAL

Site and Specialty Crosswalk Template

REQUIRED FOR DOCUMENT SUBMISSION

Program AWD Template

REQUIRED FOR DOCUMENT SUBMISSION (IF APPLICABLE)

WRITING TO THE APPFA CRITERIA

A narrative description of how the program operationalizes each criterion is required for each of the five domains: Program Leadership, Program Goals and Outcomes Measures, Organizational Values and Practices, Development and Design, and Practice-Based Learning.

Narratives provide an opportunity to tell how the program is adhering to the accreditation criteria and require both a description (“describe”) and demonstration (“example”) for each criterion.

HOW TO WRITE A DESCRIPTION (“DESCRIBE”)

- The description should be a general overview of the structures, processes, or policy(ies) used by the applicant program to meet the criterion requirement.
- Tell the who, what, where, when, why, and how (as applicable).
  - Who is involved or responsible? When does it happen, and how does it happen? Why do you do that?
  - What do you do, or expect to do, every time, with every cohort, in relation to this criterion?
- Close your eyes and listen to a colleague read your description out loud.
  - Is this capturing the entire process asked about in the criterion?
  - Does your response answer the whole question?
  - Can an outsider understand your structures and processes?

In the end, your descriptions provide an instructional guide on how to run the program.

WRITING TO THE APPFA CRITERIA CONTINUED

HOW TO WRITE A DEMONSTRATION (“EXAMPLE”)

- Tell a story that substantiates the structures, processes, or policy(ies) in the description.
- The demonstration should be specific and detailed, showcasing how the applicant program operationalized the process (description) in a real-life incident.
  - Include details such as names, dates, specialty(ies) in the examples
  - Talk about real people and real events.
  - Tell a story about someone who went through an experience that demonstrates the component of the criteria.
- Do not attach a document in place of a written example.
  - If using a document to show something that happened, expand on how it relates to the process described and the events surrounding how it was used.
  - Limit additional supporting evidence in the narratives to no more than two documents.

Demonstrations should bring the structure, processes, and policies to life.

GENERAL TIPS FOR WRITING THE APPFA AND AWD SELF-STUDY

- Pause and reflect on the intent of the APPFA standard.
  - Determine what the question is asking, and remember to answer all parts of the criterion requirement in each response.
- Answer the standard requirement directly and completely.
- When an individual’s name is used in the narrative, indicate their position/ title to ensure the reader can follow your response.
- Give enough background/context for the reader to understand the response. You do not want the appraisers to assume anything.
  - Spell it out!
- Ask several colleagues to read your responses and tell you if you have answered the standard requirement.

SELF-STUDY SUBMISSION CHECKLIST

SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION

Each piece of requested supporting documentation is included and correctly bookmarked.
No more than two items of additional supporting evidence are allowed per criterion response.

NARRATIVES

Each criterion response has a description and demonstration narrative.

Descriptions are at least one paragraph and answer the question in the criterion completely.

Note: Complete but concise responses generally require two to three paragraphs per description and demonstration.

Demonstrations tell a story that showcases how the process described is implemented in real life.

Note: Demonstrations must include names, roles, and credentials (if applicable) for any individual key interested parties or learner.

Demonstrations are written in the narrative format.

Note: Demonstrations referencing only an attachment are not accepted.

FORMATTING

All narratives and supporting documents are included in a single PDF file with bookmarks.

The PDF file is no longer than 500 pages.

The PDF file is no longer than 25 pages for APPFA (AWD).

ABOUT THE LEARNER SURVEY

PURPOSE

- The Learner Survey invites learners to share their perceptions of the applicant fellowship program. Responses are a complement to the program's self-study and Virtual Visit.

TYPES OF QUESTIONS

- The Learner Survey asks questions relevant to the presence of essential elements of a practice transition program. It covers these topics:
  - Mentor(s)
  - Preceptor(s)
  - Resource allocation
  - Orientation process
  - Program curriculum
  - Program goals and outcome measures

REQUIRED RESPONSE RATE

- A minimum response rate of 51% of all eligible learners to participate in the survey is required. Learners will have 30 calendar days to complete the survey once it has been distributed.

ELIGIBILITY

- The survey invites learners who are currently in the program or those who have participated in the program in the 12 months preceding the application submission date from all eligible site(s) and speciality(ies).

CONFIDENTIALITY

- Individual survey answers are completely confidential. Survey responses are submitted via a secure website, which only authorized ANCC PTAP & APPFA Team members may access. No one in your program can view individual responses.

REPORTING OF RESULTS

- Responses from your program are combined to produce a summary report that includes the average aggregate response for each domain about the fellowship program. Demographics are not included in the summary.

Learners who participated in the fellowship program during the 12 months preceding the application are requested to respond to the Learner Survey.

- The number of learners ("N") who participated in the program in the previous 12 months, including any still in the program as well as those who completed or left the program, must be reported on the APPFA Application Form, regardless of their current status with the organization.
- At least 51% of the N reported on the APPFA Application Form must complete the survey. Failure to meet this threshold will result in the application review process ceasing.
- The ANCC PTAP & APPFA Team will provide written confirmation of survey dates and additional distribution instructions to the program director. The survey hyperlink will be provided by the ANCC PTAP & APPFA Team.

ABOUT THE VIRTUAL VISIT

PURPOSE

- The Virtual Visit consists of an audio and videoconference between the applicant and the appraiser team.
- The purpose of the Virtual Visit is to clarify, verify, and amplify program adherence to APPFA criteria.
- APPFA appraisers utilize the Virtual Visit to determine operational consistency of the program across all participating sites and specialties.

VIRTUAL VISIT DATE

- APPFA appraisers will propose three dates for the applicant to choose from for the Virtual Visit. Typically, the Virtual Visit is scheduled between five and eight weeks after document submission.
- If proposed date and time options do not work for the program, the program director must inform the ANCC PTAP & APPFA Team immediately with significant rationale.

CONFERENCE CALL/VIDEO REQUIREMENTS

- The applicant organization will arrange and pay for the conference call. Web conferencing systems with video capability (e.g., Zoom, Teams, WebEx) are required.
- The program director should communicate instructions, including what to do if the appraiser team experiences technical difficulties or cannot access the conference line, as directed.

AGENDA

- An agenda is sent two weeks prior to the Virtual Visit from the appraiser team leader.

LENGTH OF VIRTUAL VISIT

- The visit can last between 3–4 hours.
- Depending on the number of sites in a multi-site review, alterations may be required to call times/length. The program director must be available to the appraiser team leader for a planning call prior to the visit.

ATTENDEES

- Program Director: Required to participate for the full length of the Virtual Visit. The visit will not be held if the program director does not participate.
- Executive Leadership: Required for brief interview; Chief/Executive APP.
- Directors/Managers of Specialty: Required.*
- Preceptors/Faculty: Required.*
- Specialty: Required.*
- Learners: Required.*
- Specialty Coordinator or Site Coordinator: May be required to participate (as applicable).

* Appraisers will select individuals by name/role if mentioned in self-study OR identify specific site(s)/specialty(ies) for applicant to select.

RECORDING THE VIRTUAL VISIT

- Recording of the visit is prohibited.
- Consultants or curriculum vendors are not allowed to attend the Virtual Visit.

ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE AFTER THE VIRTUAL VISIT

- Additional evidence must be submitted within 72 hours if requested by appraisers. There are no additional fees required for additional evidence requests.

Note: The Virtual Visit is the final applicant portion of the appraisal review process. The accreditation decision is not made by appraisers, and the outcome of the appraisal review will not be discussed on the Virtual Visit conference.

ABOUT APPFA

REVIEW OUTCOMES

- COA-PTP conducts a thorough, evidence-based review of the final appraiser report, aggregate survey response, and AWD self-study (when applicable).
- Following review, the COA-PTP votes to determine the outcome of the appraisal review for APP Fellowship Programs.

HOW TO CREATE ADOBE PDF BOOKMARKS & OTHER FORMATTING TIPS

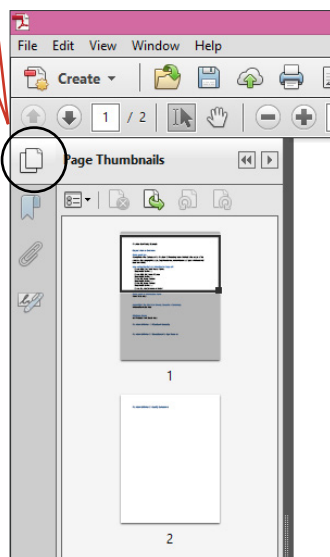

Applicant programs are required to use the APPFA self-study templates and format documents according to the APPFA Application Manual. The APPFA self-study and APPFA AWD self-study must be submitted as PDF-bookmarked files. Following is a written tutorial with tips on creating and organizing PDF bookmarks.

ADOBE ACROBAT ICONS

On the left side of your PDF file, you will see a series of icons; these are the navigation icons for your document.

The page icon will show thumbnails of each page of your document.

The ribbon icon will show all of your bookmarks.

After you select Combine Files into PDF, you will select the documents to be compiled. Select the files and click “Open.”

TIP: Have all your files ready in one folder for easy browsing.

TIP: If you don't see all your files, make sure the browser is displaying “All Supported Formats.”

Screenshot 2: Select files to combine.

You can now put the files in the order you want them to appear in your PDF. Then select “Combine Files.”

Your new PDF file will now open.

Screenshot 3: Place your files in order before selecting “Combine Files.”

STEP 3

CREATING BOOKMARKS

On the left, click on the ribbon icon, which opens the Bookmarks Navigation pane.

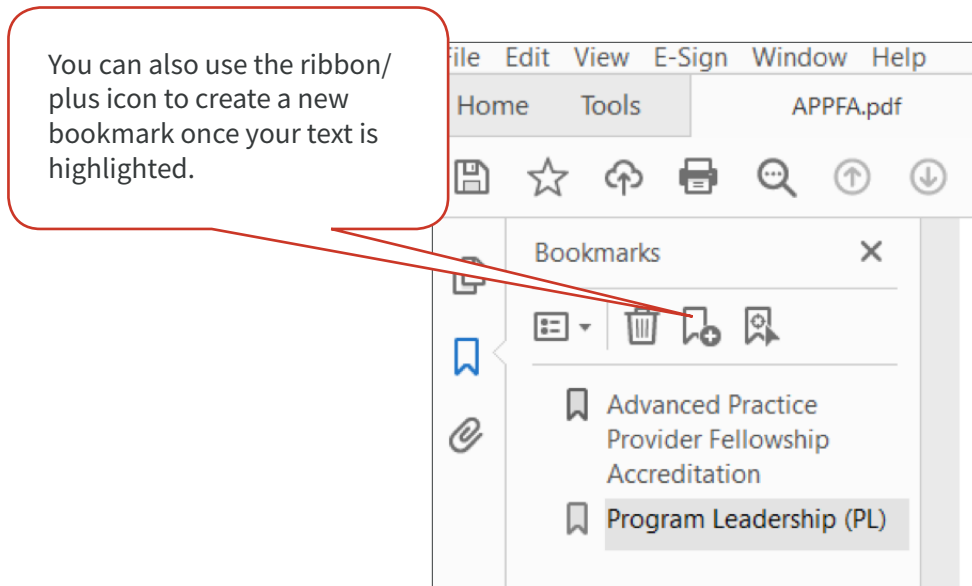

Screenshot 4: Creating a new bookmark.

Find the text in the document that you wish to make a bookmark for. Using the Text Select Tool from the Acrobat toolbar (the arrow above and to the right of the Bookmarks toolbar), highlight/select the text with your mouse that you wish to use for the bookmark label. The highlighted text currently selected in the document is used as the bookmark's label. If no text has been highlighted, type the text for the bookmark label and press Enter. (Bookmark labels can be up to 128 characters long.)

Screenshot 5: Use the Text Select Tool to highlight text to create the next bookmark.

Screenshot 6: The New Bookmark icon

Repeat until all bookmarks are created.

STEP 4

NESTING BOOKMARKS

On the left, click on the ribbon icon, which opens the Bookmarks Navigation pane.

You can nest/indent a list of bookmarks to show a relationship between topics. Nesting creates a parent/child relationship. You can expand and collapse this hierarchical list as desired.

Remember: The nested pages must be bookmarked first to do this.

When you are finished, you will be able to jump from page to page throughout the document. Follow the steps below to nest one or more bookmarks under another bookmark:

First, make all bookmarks visible in the Bookmarks Navigation pane on the left.

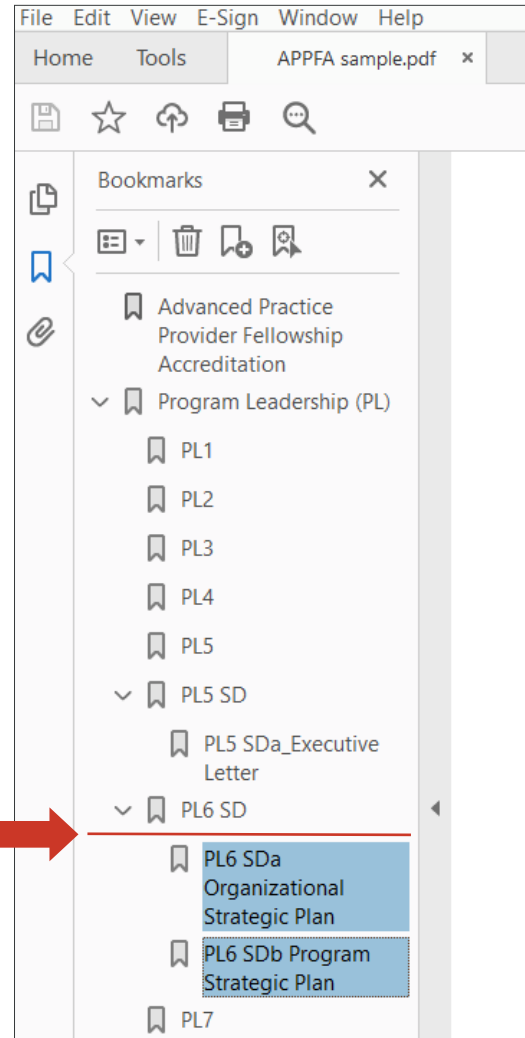

Screenshot 7: Bookmarks without hierarchy

Select/highlight the bookmark or range of bookmarks you want to nest (click the first bookmark, hold down the shift key, and click the last bookmark in the series). Below, all of the bookmarks that will be moved to the subheaded folder “PL6” have been highlighted:

Screenshot 8: Select bookmarks to move.

Drag the highlighted bookmarks underneath what will become the parent bookmark or section heading. A line with a black triangle on the left will appear that shows where the bookmarks are being moved to. See the Bookmarks Navigation pane in the picture below.

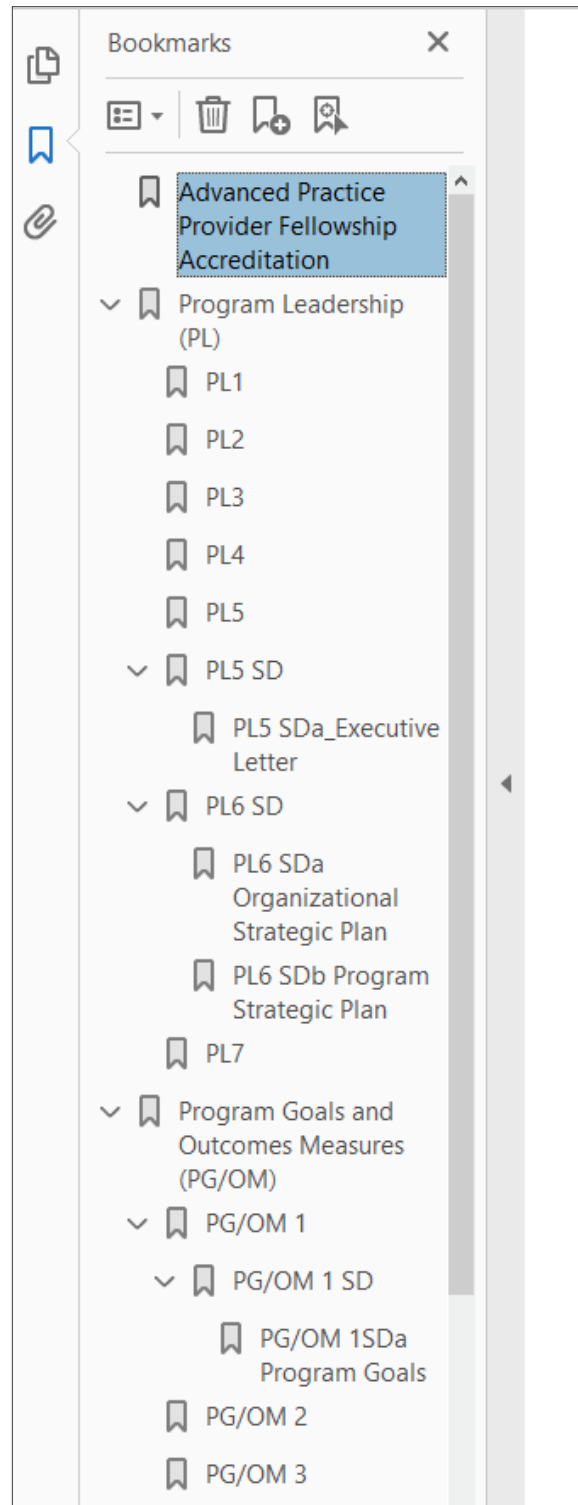

Screenshot 9: Use the black arrow to place bookmarks under the appropriate header.

Release your mouse and the bookmarks will be moved. NOTE: The actual pages will remain in their original location in the document.

Make sure to save your final bookmarked file for submission via ShareFile.

The screenshot below demonstrates proper organization and formatting of an APPFA self-study document.

Screenshot 10: Bookmarks have been created for all required supporting documents, narrative responses, and additional evidence. Bookmarks are organized and nested appropriately.

GAP ANALYSIS TOOL

INSTRUCTIONS

The Gap Analysis Tool should help you identify missing components or areas to improve upon as you begin your journey to accreditation. Program domains and focus points are listed to aid in your review, and space is provided to include gap details as well. As you investigate the details of your gap, you will notice the tool uses a “structure” or “curriculum” flag. This flag will assist you as you move to your action plan phase. You’ll be able to consider whether each gap requires a structure change, which may involve a multitude of key interested parties and financial resources, or is a curriculum gap in which the program director has the authority to implement changes quickly.

GAP ANALYSIS TOOL-AWD

INSTRUCTIONS

The Gap Analysis tool-AWD (Accreditation with Distinction) should help you identify missing components or areas to improve upon as you begin your journey to accreditation. Program domains and focus points are listed to aid in your review, and space is provided to include gap details as well. As you investigate the details of your gap, you will notice the tool uses a “structure” or “curriculum” flag. This flag will assist you as you move to your action plan phase. You’ll be able to consider whether this gap requires a structural change, which may involve a multitude of key interested parties and financial resources, or whether it’s a curriculum gap in which the program director has the authority to implement changes quickly.

APPFA APPLICANT COLLEAGUE SELF-STUDY REVIEW

INSTRUCTIONS

Have a colleague read your self-study document and offer constructive feedback.

As you read each criterion, score yes/no based on items that the narratives in the description and demonstration should address. Are these points answered in the narratives? Narratives should be at least one paragraph. SD criteria do not have narratives.

Additional considerations: Each Site & Specialty must be addressed in the document. Only one narrative for each description and one for each demonstration.
